

Brenda Hendrix Studio

Oil Painting Instruction

Brenda Hendrix Studio is located in the home of the artist. Overlooking Huston Lake in near Southwest Denver, the studio provides a peaceful and lovely place for learning the techniques of fine art oil painting.

Two oil painting class sessions of four weeks duration each month are held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Classes start at 9:30 a.m. and go until 1:30 p.m. Each monthly session costs $100 (four classes), or individual classes may be purchased for $25 if space is available. The Studio can accommodate a maximum of just nine students per class.

Reservations

Future sessions may be reserved in advance, first come first served, except that monthly reservations receive preference over daily sign-ups. Payment is due at the beginning of each month. Unused paid sessions are carried forward until they can be used.

Parking

Off-street parking is available in the driveway for up to five vehicles or on either Ohio or Alcott Streets.

Equipment

Bring your own paints, palettes, brushes, canvas or panels, and inspiration. Easels and bean jars are provided. Panels and paints are available for purchase if you need them. A library of art books is available for reference at the studio at any time.

Illness

To reduce the spread of colds and flu, please don't come if you are sick. Students who call in sick will receive a $25 cash refund or credit that can be applied to any future purchase (classes, materials, paintings) at the Studio. Likewise, if the Studio cancels a class due to illness each student who has already paid for the class will be credited for $25 in lieu of the instruction. Credits have no expiration date.

Please contact us with any questions or to reserve an art instruction session.
